

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES FROM MANY SECTIONS OF THE CITY

Society Closing
City Houses for Summer Season

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan W. Daboll Open 'Hermosa' at Glen Cove, L. I.

SOCIETY is on the wing, so to speak, for while some of its members are returning from Europe after a few months' tour of the continent, others are sailing for a summer abroad.

While Sulphur and Hot Springs still continue to be attractive to many, especially bridal couples, for there is a large colony of them there enjoying the picturesque drives and golf course; while others are returning from there and after a few weeks in New York will go to their country houses for the summer. Indeed a number of prominent families already have closed their homes in the city and opened their country places.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel T. Guernsey, who recently returned from a trip to Washington, have closed their house, 125 East Seventy-second street, and opened their summer home at Greenwich, Conn. They will remain there until late in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan W. Daboll have closed their apartment, 850 Park avenue, and opened Hermosa, their country home at Glen Cove, L. I., for the season.

Miss Alma Belwin of 14 Central Park West sailed on Tuesday on the Aquitania for Europe. She will join her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boyd, in Paris. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd, who formerly lived at 200 West Fifty-eighth street, for the last year have been abroad. They spent the winter at Nice and Monte Carlo and made a trip to Italy before going to Paris.

Miss Portia Willis of 452 Riverside Drive, who went as a New York delegate to the Pan-American Conference and League of Women Voters, held recently at Baltimore, has gone to Washington for a visit before returning to her home here. Miss Willis is a daughter of the late Col. B. A. Willis, former member of Congress, and is a niece of Mrs. Cortlandt Schuyler Van Rensselaer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Theron Slade and their daughter, Miss Georgiana M. Slade, are due to arrive from Europe on Tuesday. They went abroad the latter part of February and have motored through France and Italy.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Newton were among those sailing last week for Europe. They will motor through Italy and Spain before going to England for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. Charles McKay, accompanied by her two children, Miss Anne Frances McKay and William Cuthbert McKay, sailed last week for an extended stay in Europe. Mrs. McKay will visit Sir Henry and Lady White-Smith at Wintbourne.

Dr. John A. Victor has gone to Hot Springs to join Mrs. Victor, who has been there for several days.

The New York State Chapter, International Federation of Catholic Alumnae, gave a card party on Thursday afternoon at the Waldorf-Astoria in order that its activities in the advancement of Catholic interests be maintained and developed. The prizes were articles made by the blind, as one of the many works of the Federation is the transcribing of books for the blind according to the Braille method. All the alumnae associations throughout the State helped to make the affair a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Branch Price Kerfoot, who were married on April 26, have gone to Hot Springs on their wedding trip. Mrs. Kerfoot was Miss Helen McB. Bartlett, daughter of a former Mayor of New York City, and a former Miss of 485 Riverside Drive. On their return they will make their home in this city. Mr. Kerfoot is a member of the law firm of Burroughs, Brown & Kerfoot.

The first in a series of affairs planned by the members of the board of managers for the Darragh Home for Crippled Children was an auction bridge on Wednesday afternoon at the Hotel Plaza. It was in charge of Mrs. A. M. Morris of 310 West Eighty-eighth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turnbull, their daughter, Miss Jean Turnbull, and Miss Mary Turnbull, sailed on Tuesday for Scotland. Miss Stewart is returning to her home after a visit to the Turnbulls at Braetop, their place in Morristown, N. J. The Turnbulls will spend the summer in Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron O'Day Macpherson of New York City, who were married a week ago in the Broadway Tabernacle, are leaving for Europe. They will spend the greater part of the summer in England, going later to France.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schaefer of Broadlawn, Greenwich, Conn., spent several days in the city last week. They stopped at the Hotel Lorraine.

Mrs. Everett Morse, accompanied by Miss Helen Leake Reed, arrived last week from Boston, Mass., and were at the Lorraine for several days. Among others registered there last week were Mrs. Hastings Arnold of Smithtown, L. I., and Mrs. Harry C. Thayer of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. H. Barnes sailed yesterday on the Homeric. They were married a week ago in the Broadway Tabernacle. Mrs. Barnes was Miss Fern Welch, widow of Bradley Welch.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Schnitz, who were recently married in St. Patrick's Cathedral, sailed last week for a honeymoon abroad. Mrs. Schnitz was Miss Mary A. Lamb, daughter of Mrs. M. McGovern Lamb.

Mrs. Charles V. Carrington, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Pinkney Herbert at their cottage in Asheville, N. C., for several weeks, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Smith have returned from California, where they spent the winter, and are now at Garden City, L. I.

The Rev. Theodore A. Sedgwick, rector of Calvary Episcopal Church, will sail for Europe early in June. He will go to Rome, where he will occupy the pulpit of the St. Paul's Episcopal Church, relieving the Rev. Dr. Walter Lowrie, who has been its rector for several years and who has been granted a year's leave of absence. The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Lowrie will sail for New York.

CONJECTURE versus CONTACT

How often have you formed a mental picture of a person or place you'd never seen? Rarely, if ever, does actual visualization conform to conjecture. The reality brings either delight or disillusionment. Many visitors to these Galleries express themselves as completely surprised—both by the vast extent of our offerings and the moderation of our markings.

If you have never visited here and have formed a mental picture of high prices because of the AIMONE reputation for high QUALITY—contact will prove the error of the conjecture.
